

Guruvayoor Temple – Information, Timings & Rituals

Overview

Guruvayoor Temple is one of the most important Hindu pilgrimage centers in India, dedicated to Lord Krishna (Guruvayurappan). The temple attracts millions of devotees annually.

Temple Timings (General)

- Temple opens around 3:00 AM
- Morning darshan: 3:00 AM – 12:30 PM
- Temple closed: 12:30 PM – 4:30 PM
- Evening darshan: 4:30 PM – 9:15 PM
- Temple closes around 9:15 PM
- Timings may vary on festival days

Daily Pooja Schedule (Important Rituals)

- Nirmalyam – early morning ritual
- Abhishekam and Alankaram
- Usha Pooja
- Ethirettu Pooja
- Seeveli (procession)
- Pantheeradi Pooja
- Ucha Pooja (midday)
- Deeparadhana (evening)
- Athazha Pooja and night rituals

Important Festivals

- Guruvayur Ekadasi (most important day)
- Annual Temple Festival (Ulsavam)
- Krishna Janmashtami (Ashtamirohini)
- Chembai Music Festival
- Heavy crowd expected during festivals

Rush / Peak Days

- Weekends (Saturday, Sunday)
- Ekadasi days
- Festival periods
- School holidays
- Marriage auspicious dates
- Darshan may take several hours during peak days

Special Rituals / Offerings

- Udayasthamana Pooja
- Thulabharam offering
- Krishnanattam (dance offering)
- Anayoottu (feeding elephants)

Dress Code

- Men: Dhoti (no shirt inside temple)
- Women: Saree or Salwar Kameez

Important Notes

- Temple timings may change on special days
- Verify timings from official sources
- Crowd conditions may affect darshan duration
- Some poojas require advance booking